Hello,

I really hope you get this fast. I could not inform anyone about my trip, because it was impromptu. I had to be in Virginia for a Programmed. And the program was successful, but my journey has turned sour, I was mugged at gun point and all my valuable things were all stolen. I need your help financially to get back home, I need to settle some outstanding hotel bills and also get myself back home.

Kindly get back to me and let me know if you can help me out? I promise to make the immediate refund when I get back home.

Thanks,
Jeff
